Town Administrator By-Law Fails To Pass Final Reading

Councillor F. J. Lukay Monday night at the regular meeting of town council defeated a motion to pass By-law 14/72 which deals with the position of a chief administrator for the Town of St. Albert.

The By-law called for the establishment of a chief administrator and that the present secretary-treasurer, D. B. O'Connell be appointed to that position. The by-law continued to describe the duties of the chief administrator, spelled out under 13 clauses.

Another councillor, John deBruijn spoke against the by-law and so did Cr. Thordson.

Councillor Lukay, in his talk against the motion to pass By-law 14/72 in third reading made his position clear, "I am not opposed to Mr. O'Connell being proposed for the position of chief administrator nor do I question his abilities to fulfill the outlined duties." Mr. Lukay explained that he was opposed to the general format of the by-law because it specifically names Mr. O'Connell as chief administrator, "What happens to our by-law if and when Mr. O'Connell leaves?" asked Mr. Lukay. He suggested that the by-law should be drawn up in such a way whereby it would serve regardless who happens to hold that position.

Another point of contention brought forth by Cr. Lukay was the way this whole issue of a chief administrator was being approached. He said, "we should first draft out a plan of administration for our town with a critical view to the future needs of St. Albert, then clearly define the duties of a chief administrator." It would be only after all these points had been dealt with that he felt council could entertain applications for the chief administrator's position.

Councillor deBruijn in expressing his views before the by-law came up for a third reading said it was his opinion that a chief administrator may not be the whole solution to relieve overburdened staff. He suggested that council look into the possibility of approving the mayor's position, "on a full-time basis."

When By-law 14/72 came up for third reading it was defeated 5 - 2.

Council unanimously approved a motion that the defeated by-law be recalled for further discussion at the next meeting.

Council also approved un-

Class of 31 To Be Confirmed at Lutheran Church

A class of 31 faithful will be confirmed next Sunday in the St. Albert Evangelical Lutheran Church at 11 a.m.

An interesting feature of this large confirmation class will be their demonstration to the congregation, "What Is The Christian Faith." Instead of the usual liturgy and formal confirmation service, they will take the congregation through a step-by-step experience of worship.

Four singing groups will also participate, the Junior Choir, Youths, Seniors and Male Chorus.

Baha'i mark New Year

On March 20th the Baha'i Community of St. Albert joined the Edmonton Baha'i Community to observe Naw Ruz - the Baha'i New Year.

This celebration took place at the Pleasantview Community Hall in Edmonton and the program consisted of prayers, a talk about Naw Ruz by Glen Elyford of St. Albert, the showing of a film depicting Baha'i youth activities and refreshments.

Like all independent religions, the Baha'i Faith has its own calendar. The Baha'i era began in 1844 and the new calendar symbolizes the further revelation of God's word to mankind through Baha'u'llah (Ba-ha-ol-lah). The Baha'i New Year coincides with the vernal equinox, the first day of spring. It is a time of purification, rededication and joy.

This is a course approved by the Alberta Safety Council angements. The third gives out information on provincial revenues while the fourth provides Albertans with an overall summary of expenditures.

In summing up the budget, Mr. Minely said, "we regard the budget not simply as a summary of financial data, but also as a vehicle for legislative and public understanding of government programs and priorities." He continued to explain that the government's budget is also a tool in the development of improved planning, priority determination and effectiveness in the day-to-day financial management of public services."

Driving Course Slated

A defensive driving course will be offered in St. Albert High School at 7:30 p.m. each evening of April 10, 17, 24 and May 1.

Sponsored by the St. Albert Parks and Recreation Dept., the course costs $8 per person and deadline for registration is April 5. Administered by the Alberta Safety Council, Edmonton, the course promises to introduce DDC pupils to "perfect driving." "Your driving habits begin to change with the first lesson," says the advertisement in The Gazette this week.

While cruising around town Saturday afternoon, The Gazette's news photographer Vic Post spotted the above helicopter coming in for a touchdown in a field near Jasper Auto Parts. Soon as the aircraft touched ground, about 30 youngsters gathered to view the "whirlybird." Vic Post drove the pilot, Ron Sturges of Edmonton to a telephone at Pacific 66 where he told the Municipal Airport air controller his radio had gone dead and wanted clearance to land. Pilot Ron Sturges obtained clearance and was able to complete his return flight from Fort Chipewyan.

A representative from Carthage Construction Ltd., a firm whose application to construct a day-care centre on Forest Drive was present at the Monday meeting to discuss council's refusal of the application. Council explained to the applicant that Lots 1 and 2, Block 1, Plan 6049RS (proposed site for the day-care centre), was presently zoned for single dwellings and will have to be rezoned to 'school.' The representative from Carthage was advised to discuss his plans with Mr. J. X. Woodroffe, senior planner and make a new application.

Councillor R. Kambourff made a motion which received unanimous approval that Campbell, Sharp, Nash and Field, chartered accountants in Edmonton be re-appointed auditors for the Town of St. Albert at a fee of $2,500. This fee shows an increase of $100 over last year.

Council moved as 'received' notice from the Local Authorities Board regarding a public hearing scheduled for Thursday, March 30 at the St. Albert Community Hall, 9:30 a.m. Re: Proposed Annexation of B.A.M. Industries land.

After considerable discussion, council approved without opposition a motion to purchase a new water heating unit for the swimming pool. The estimated cost of this expenditure will come to $5,000.

A letter from Calgary Power was referred to the next committee meeting where a proposal will be discussed with representatives from the power company. The letter outlines alternate plans to upgrade power lines in the Forest Lawn replant area. One plan costing an estimated $150,000 would run the power line under ground, while the other proposal of running the line on existing poles along Cunningham Rd. would cost $12,000.

The lowest of two tenders was approved at $10,179, for the town's booster station improvements. The successful bid was submitted by Fernhout Mechanical Ltd., of R.R. 1 St. Albert.

Correspondence was received from the Chamber of Commerce of St. Albert advising council it has accepted a tender for the production of 6,000 brochures to be used for promoting the town. Mr. Gerry W. Belke, president of the Chamber of Commerce stated in his letter that the total price will be $900, and that the C of C agreed to pay the sum of $778. Council agreed to pay the sum of $122, covering extra costs involved in the production of the brochures.

Under new business, liaison meeting will be held with members of the MD of Sturgeon and the tentative date of March 28 has been set, pending confirmation from officials of the municipal district. The suggestion was made by Cr. Lukay, Serving on the liaison committee are councillors Hudson and Kambourff, both of whom agreed to attend. Councillor Thronson

The Library is ready for gardening buffs

The patches of grass showing through the snow and even a brave tulip or iris shoot coming through close to the house encourage visions of green lawns and beds of petunias. To turn these visions into reality needs planning and knowledge. The gardening section (635) at the library has books which will be of help. "The Growing Question" by Filmore and Brian Andrews Gardening Book are both written for Canadian gardeners. They both have our short growing season and hard winters constantly in mind.

New homeowners and those planning alterations in their gardens will find "Better Homes and Gardens Landscape Planning" and "Landscape for Modern Living" (712) useful with plenty of ideas for patios, decks and lawns. "The Practical Encyclopedia of Good Decorating and Home Improvement" (643) has some suggestions for driveways and parking areas.

Children will find "The Golden Book of Gardening" (635) has some very colorful pictures, clear instructions for planting and caring for a garden and a short history on each plant mentioned which is most interesting. "The Grow It" book shows various seeds being grown indoors. Some of these are quite short term projects and will hold the interest of even the younger children.

For adults who like house plants there are several books on cacti, succulent, African Violets and other indoor plants, together with several books on greenhouse gardening.

Of special note to Albertans was Mr. Minely's announcement - one of many changes contained in the budget address - that the new Conservative Government will not pass special warrants for monies unless these are processed through the Cabinet. It explained this procedure was just another safeguard against overspending.

Hectic year at school

The Editor:

Albert Lacombe School has experienced quite a change in the school year 1971 - 1972. Not only did the pupil enrolment and staff more than double in number, but pupils and staff alike had to adjust to a move well into the school year after the new addition had been completed. The move for many students and teachers was from a conventional classroom to an open-area. It is to the credit of those concerned that they adjusted to the change quite readily.

The problem still remained to attempt to make some educational change without sacrificing quality. The first effort was to expand the reading program. All pupils from Grades three to six were tested and their general achievement was considered before they were grouped according to their reading ability. Fifteen groups were then formed from 11 normal classrooms. The principal, vice-principal, reading teacher and librarian also became responsible for one reading group. This approach appears to be one step in the right direction, as it seems to have eliminated some of the frustrations often experienced by students in classrooms where the traditional approach is used. Since the groups are smaller, teachers have more contact with the children and are thus able to provide more individual attention.

The Grade four teachers have combined their two classes and operate as a team for some of the subjects. This is undertaken only when feasible and at no time does it affect the pupil teacher ratio, as both teachers are working together. The joint effort of two capable teachers makes for improved instruction techniques.

Two of the Grade six classrooms have also combined to work as a team. Their main project for the time being is to work towards further individualization of the mathematics program. This approach seems to be creating some enthusiasm among the pupils.

There have been modifications in most aspects of the educational program, in varying degrees, particularly in Grades four, five and six.

In the more traditional classrooms there is "business as usual" while enjoying and profiting from some of the new facilities.

As is common in most schools in St. Albert, it is found that parent-teacher interviews are one of the more desirable ways of reporting the progress of students to parents. Though a modified report card is sent out, direct communication with the parents usually eliminates many possibilities of misinterpretation.

Change is taking place at all times and hopefully the school as well as individuals in other walks of life must either adapt or be instrumental in directing its destiny.

Letters to the Editor

Protests column

The Editor:

I received the enclosed clipping from my mother who lives in Chilliwack. She has been to St. Albert many times and was rather irate at the tone of condescension in the article.

For someone who obviously has just moved here, she presumes to know quite a bit about St. Albert. Too bad she didn't check her facts. I wasn't aware that we had an Olympic pool or just Catholic schools, or prairie for miles. But what really bothers me, is what kind of impression people who have never heard of St. Albert are getting.

The snide remark about the size of Alberta towns really is annoying when you realize that the population of Abbotsford in 1969 (according to the Edmonton Public Library) was 300!!!

I have written to the Chamber of Commerce, and am going to write to the Chilliwack Progress with a more accurate picture of our town. I am hoping you may be able to do something towards enlightening Mrs. McFetridge and the people of Chilliwack about St. Albert.

Thank you.

Mrs. (Alice) Sheilbehofer, Sheridan Drive.

EDITOR'S NOTE: It seems that a number of St. Albert people have received copies of the paper carrying Mrs. McFetridge's column, through relatives and friends in the Chilliwack area, and most of them reacted in the same fashion as Alice Sheilbehofer. However we expect that June may well become quite a fierce champion of St. Albert herself as she gets to know our community better, and understand the concern of many residents that they and the town may lose their identity and historical heritage if they don't guard against it.

bert herself as she gets to know our community better, and understand the concern of many residents that they and the town may lose their identity and historical heritage if they don't guard against it.

The Chilliwack Progress, Wednesday, Feb. 23, 1972. PARDON ME, BUT By Joan McFetridge

It has been so long since I last wrote a newspaper column that even the paper looks the wrong size. You have been reading pre-written material for the last four or five weeks. I have been doing things, and columns have not been one of them.

What I am doing at the moment might be of interest to some of you. I am seated on a cardboard box filled with books, typing a column on a typewriter that is still in a box and on top of another box. I am in the living room. Its furniture consists of four boxes (the last one holds my coffee), one chair (used), a snow shovel (unused), hedge clippers, a jolly jumper, three light fixtures (none connected) and two nite offsprings (both connected). I am also watching Mathematician put up a table in the hall. The hall is the only room without boxes. We might uncover the stove and have some hotdogs there.

We have moved. We are now residents of that thriving metropolis, the town of St. Albert. That is the whole name, the real name, the only name. We were told that 304 times before we bought this house. The Chamber of Commerce gets agitated if the town of St. Albert is referred to as anything else.

We are situated seven miles outside the city limits of Edmonton. We are the oldest and largest town in Alberta (looked at any Alberta towns lately? They make Abbotsford look like Vancouver).

We St. Albertans are French in origin and tongue; we are quaint, picturesque, and we are also almost discovered. This means there are only five new subdivisions around the original town of St. Albert, and that all these new spots still have their trees.

We also have a river (the Sturgeon River, I think) and little industry, no smog or pollution, Catholic schools and a town hall. We have a community centre and a hockey rink, an Olympic pool and prairie for miles. It is almost Connecticut!

We have gas lanterns in our back yard, a ravine in our back yard, everybody else's dog in our back yard, and a double-car garage in our front yard. We have arrived!

The Phantom has found soul-mates three doors down the block. They are twins, four years old, and twinkle and giggle and beam. We have ski-dooes all around us (all night long) and ski hills and toboggan runs and crazy-carpet space.

We have a fireplace and birds and rabbits and blizzards. We have everything! Mathematician is so content that even my derogatory comments about the state of his stomach elicited only an Irish grin.

Undog celebrated the move by learning to sit up and say "Hi" all in one afternoon. Considering that he cannot roll over by himself, it was quite a celebration. We think it is the clean air of the town of St. Albert (gets tiresome, doesn't it?)

We are no longer Calgary cowboys. We are now Edmonton Eskimos.

Thank You

The Editor:

Since our hockey season is nearly at the end of another successful year, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Kinsmen, And one man in particular. This man, a Kinsman, has done a job no other man would have been able to do without a tremendous amount of courage and stamina. For that, Mr. Fred Calkins, I would like to thank you for a job well done. Also, whoever takes over for next season, I hope that all coaches give FULL co-operation.

Thanks again.

Motorists driving along Grandin Road last Saturday had a 'special obstacle' to overcome if they became too impatient and 'lead-footed' their vehicles. An RCMP radar speed trap caught 20 violators in the space of 45 minutes. The offenders were not issued with tickets if they exceeded the speed limit slightly, however, those who hugged the 40 m.p.h. range got tickets. When The Gazette photographer took the above picture, the RCMP radar equipment began showing signs of fatigue and the speed caution area was closed down.

Morinville rookie tries out with Black Hawks

Dave Kryskow of Morinville is presently in Dallas, Texas, trying out with the Chicago Black Hawks farm club.

Dave Kryskow of Morinville is the youngest player at the Dallas Black Hawks camp, where he is trying out for the farm club of the Chicago Black Hawks, in the Central Hockey League.

The coach has him at right wing on a line with centre Dave Hudson and Dan Maloney. Commenting on the switch from his customary left wing position, Kryskow says "I like right wing better - my stronger stick hand is my right, and the move has also been a boost to my backhand."

In his first 37 games Dave picked up seven goals and 15 assists, "but there is plenty of room for improvement," he commented, "I need to improve my shooting and checking."

"I feel my main responsibility is to prevent my man from scoring, but at the same time I should develop into a scoring threat."

Dave could be drawn into the new World Hockey League, to play in Edmonton, but so far contract price and other negotiations have not been made public. And there is a chance that the Black Hawk's farm team may want to hold on to the promising young rookie from Morinville.

The 20 year old son of Ed and Anne Kryskow, Dave began playing hockey at age 11, when his parents moved to Morinville. He developed as a fiery, aggressive and fast player, light in weight, and has been stationed on left wing for most of his career.

By Doug and Joyce Foreman (Coaches)

On Saturday morning the Legion Pee Wee 'B' team, reinforced by six players from the Red Wings, left the arena in St. Albert for their exhibition series in Calgary.

On arrival at the Thorncliffe Community Centre the boys were billeted for the weekend with the families of the community league.

Their first game was at 7:45 p.m., but between game time and arrival time, the boys were taken to the Husky Tower, museum, bowling, and were given the Royal Treatment by their hosts.

The boys lost their first game to the Thorncliffe Pee-wees by the score of 7-4. After a 10 minute rest they returned to the ice to play the Bonness Pee-wees and though losing by a 4 to 0 score, they still played a very good game for the second time that evening.

On Sunday morning it was another game against the Thorncliffe Pee-wees which again was a 5 to 1 loss, but a very well played game.

The boys then returned home with their hosts until 2 p.m., at which time they returned to the community centre to climb on board the Kinsmen bus for their return home.

Although they were on the losing end all weekend, the boys were very pleased with the trip and made a lot of new friends.

The thanks of the whole team to the Kinsmen for the use of the bus and a special thanks from the coaches to the Kinsmen and to all the parents who supported us in this trip, morally, financially and verbally.

It is a real pleasure to know that parents would support us so grandly by coming to Calgary to watch.

Many thanks to all for a very enjoyable season.

Woman hockey coach is in third year

Joyce Foreman of Grandin Road is St. Albert's only woman hockey coach and manager, which involves her with two teams. She coaches the Legion Peewees and manages the Safeway Maple Leaf Bantams. Both Joyce and her husband, Doug, got interested in minor hockey when their son Stephen began playing at age five. Doug is in his 10th year as a coach, beginning when the Foremans' lived in Oakville, Ontario. Through the years Joyce became more and more active and assisted her husband. When they came to St. Albert three years ago, Joyce took over as a coach for the first time. The Foremans' have three sons and four daughters, and fortune-

ately Joyce has an abundance of energy and enthusiasm, which brings her through the hockey season in fine style. "I'm sorry to see the season end," she said, "and already looking forward to next year with the boys."

Card of Thanks

Over 600 Enter Skate - a - Thon '72

Lt.-Gov. J. Grant MacEwan led the way again last Sunday at the Kinsmen's annual Skate-a-thon 1972. Along with Alberta's lieutenant-governor were St. Albert's mayor Ray Gibbon, the Kinsmen's Sharon McMaster, Kinsman (or dance hall girl) Dave Stewart and about 250 enthusiastic youngsters.

As the skate-a-thon was being launched at 10 a.m. by officials and local participants, the pace was set and both, young and old came through, most completing their 100-lap pledges.

Kinsmen told The Gazette that about 600 skaters participated in this year's skate-a-thon. Rusty Pollard, chairman of the event has no figures yet however he did say by next week, returns should be tabulated and a gross figure announced.

Children are reminded to turn-in their money collected from pledges, along with sponsor sheet 'A' to the Bank of Nova Scotia in Grandin Shopper's Park before April 7, 1972. All participants turning-in money will receive a crest while skate-a-thon winners will be notified.

Net proceeds from the skate-a-thon will again go toward the arena ice plant.

Local bowlers taste success

Paul Kane bowlers came up big two weekends ago, placing third in the annual Edmonton Mixed Team Bowling Championships held at the Lucky Strike Lanes. The March 11 - 12 tournament involved a total of 90 teams representing mainly adult leagues in Edmonton and the surrounding area. The team from Paul Kane consisted of Marilyn Ahronson, Sandi Sutherland, Terry Young and Dave Garvin, all of whom are students at the school, and Ted Nemirsky, a member of the teaching staff. All five bowl regularly in a Tuesday afternoon league at the local bowling lanes, Grandin Bowling. In addition, Marilyn and Sandi are members of a Saturday morning league at the same lanes.

When the quietest from PK reported for their 8 o'clock shift on March 12, 80 teams had already bowled and the highest scores had been posted. Knowing what they had to beat, the locals went to work. In the first game, the team recorded a total pinfall, including handicap, of 1181.

It was mostly strikes and spares during the rest of the evening as the local entry appeared to gain confidence with every frame. Their second game score was 1243 and the third game was their best of the night when the team total was 1346. The pressure of competition was evident during the fourth and final game when the St.

Albert crew hung on to score 1178. Their four-game total of 4948 was only 230 short of a first-place finish in the tournament.

Finishing among the winners was indeed a thrill for all five bowlers since they were possibly the youngest team (even including Mr. N.) to participate in the tournament. It was the first taste of success in a major bowling tournament for four members of the team. Earlier this year Marilyn Ahronson had earned a spot on an eight-girl

Edmonton and area team which will compete in the provincial bowling finals next month.

For winning third place, the bowlers will be presented with individual trophies at the semi-annual general meeting of the Edmonton Five Pin Bowling Association to be held at the Masonic Temple on April 30, 1972.

the bank where people make the difference

St. Albert's earliest form of public transportation operated in the summer of 1912 as a private business venture, and clearly the road bed and rail ties did not present a large funding problem. Photo, taken on the corner of Edmonton Street and St. Michael Street looking north, was loaned to the Gazette through the kindness of Theresa Micholot, 28 St. Michael Street. A street car appeared briefly on the scene 60 years ago in St. Albert. Bought and operated by two businessmen from Quebec, the street car service ran from Calder to St. Albert. Its future was cut short when a fire at the Calder barns razed the building and the cars in them. Within St. Albert this handsome model travelled down what is now Grandin Road to St. Thomas Street, down Edmonton Street to St. Michael and back, thereby conveniently serving all the population. The incline on Grandin Road was a bit too much for the gas engine, but no problem, cables were used to pull it up. Mr. Matt Leonard is seen standing at left, of the street car, and his house at far left in foreground. It is still standing but has undergone some alteration. The house on the right belonged to Charles St. Charles and was later sold to Mrs. Ethel Cuts. When the Cuts decided to build on this lot, the house was moved one block south, where it still stands, at the corner of Edmonton and St. Thomas streets. A new house, built on the St. Michael Street corner was rented to the RCMP, with Corporal Ken Ryley and his family taking over the upper floor. The single constable had a lower floor room, where the police offices and jail cells were also housed. The mounties remained in that house until moving to Perron Street. Outgrowing those premises, they moved to their present location on Muir Drive. Further back at left, the house across the river, was on the site of the present Father Jan School, and occupied by the Durochers. Behind that may be seen the RC Public School, the first in St. Albert, a four-room brick school where Marie Wolniewicz taught for many years. It was demolished about 11 years ago. Upon the hill, the long white building was the first Youville Home quarters, later replaced by a larger building, which was replaced by the present Home. The white building in background at right was the store owned and operated by Fleuri Perron, father of Eugene (now in the Perron St. store) and Hector of St. Albert.

V.G. "Flea Market" aids Share-Lent

The staff and students of Vital Grandin School are looking forward to the second annual "Flea Market" with great anticipation. For those who just moved into St. Albert and for those who were unable to attend, (it seemed like the whole town was here last year), the "Flea Market" is a giant rummage sale. It includes: bake table, clothing, household items, fish pond, white elephant table, books, games of chance, toys and palm reading.

The "Flea Market" will be open from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. on March 29, 1972 in the gymnasium of Vital Grandin School. Hot dogs, pop, coffee and popcorn will be available for those who wish to eat supper out.

The proceeds from the "Flea Market" go to the Share Lent Project, which is designed to assist the Missions in South America in community projects. In 1971, Vital Grandin students presented a cheque for $1,000 to the project coordinator, Father Levange. In 1972 we are looking forward to topping that figure.

The assistance of residents through donating articles that can be sold at the "Flea Market" on March 29, would be very much appreciated by the school.

An elderly lady was berating an airline passenger agent because the plane she wanted to catch was late. "I just don't see," she fumed, "how anything that's going 600 miles an hour could be late."

AROUND TOWN

A public hearing on the proposed annexation of BACM land to St. Albert will be heard March 30 at the Community Hall at 9:30 a.m. A citizen's group filed opposition to the annexation of about 400 acres of land northwest of town and asked that the question be heard before the Local Authorities Board.

Mr. and Mrs. Jannes Nymeyer in Denham Holland in the traditional style of clothing they have retained. Mr. Nymeyer, father of Bill Nymeyer of St. Albert died on Sunday at 79 years.

Bill Nymeyer in Holland for his father's funeral

Jannes Nymeyer of Denham, Holland, died Sunday afternoon following a long illness. His only son, William, of 37 Salisbury Crescent left by plane Tuesday and will attend the services, to be held Thursday.

Mr. Nymeyer is well known in Holland, having a model farm which attracts many visitors from throughout the country. He breeds purebred hogs of a Danish line, and has shown many champions in livestock shows.

Five years ago Mr. and Mrs. Nymeyer visited their son and his family in St. Albert, and despite the fact that they do not speak English, Mr. Nymeyer made many friends in Sturgeon Heights, and the couple will be remembered wearing national Holland dress, as they walked around the area last day.

The younger Nymeyers were surprised that Jannes met people they themselves didn't know and was often invited into their homes for a cup of coffee.

Two years ago Bill attended the Golden Wedding of his parents in Holland, and last year two of the children, John and Trudy spent part of their summer with their grandparents, and their mother's relatives.

Mr. Nymeyer is expected back in St. Albert on April 7th.

Large Crowd enjoys Spring Fashion Show

The sailor look, the linen look, the at home look - they all showed up in the dazzling parade of new styles for spring at the WI's Festival of Fashion Friday evening. In all 66 outfits for children, teens, men and women were modelled for a crowd of nearly 400 at Father Jan school auditorium.

Kathy Hauptman went home with the beautiful hand made quilt which won top honors for the local Women's Institute in provincial handicraft competition. Flowers were presented to pianist Bertha Kennedy, and to Nora Rouault and Marg Sechter, conveners of the show.

Red, navy and white were predominant in the collection by Woodward's, Westmount, with new shades of lilac, purple and pink also showing up frequently. Interesting new easy-care fabrics were much in evidence, and wide-flare, cuffed pants and slacks. Separates were also popular to be combined in many ways, often with blazers or battle jackets included.

Only four hot pant outfits were shown, one jump suit and one pant suit, which indicates something about the future of these fashions.

Door prize winners were: Mrs. Hadden, Potted Plant by John and Hazelene Evans; Mrs. J. Bourbonnais, Curling Iron - Medical Centre Drugs; Mrs. Claire Kremer - Set of glasses, WI member; Mrs. A. Oulmet, Chip and Dip Set - WI member; Mrs. R. Kremer, Cookie Jar - WI Club; Margaret Beckwith - Grandin Beauty Salon Shampoo and Set; Janet Holm - Cosmetics Set - St. Albert Pharmacy.

The event is scheduled for April 14th and already ticket sales are going well. Hopefully when the kids are in Montreal working like mad on the crash course in French language, the hard-working parents will be loafing under the trees in a hammock, reading 'whodone its' (in English).

A check on the travels of three young men who went overseas reveals that Stephen Laird is in hospital in Paris with pneumonia, and is expected to be released sometime this week. Lee Ripley is back in St. Albert and Phillip McNeely is in Amsterdam. Following the breakdown of the used van they purchased for getting around Europe, the boys split up for the latter portion of their trip.

For the readers who enquired about article six in the 'Plan new home grounds' series, it went astray in the mails, and will be appearing next week.

In the midst of the housecleaning season, local women need not take time out to bake Hot Cross Buns for Easter. The young fellows of 3rd St. Albert Cubs and Scouts will be calling on Saturday, March 25. Every area in the community will be covered, beginning at 9:30 in the morning. Last year the boys sold 1,500 dozen buns, with support of local people which pleased them immensely, and this year they are hopeful of another big day Saturday. Proceeds of the annual project go to Cub and Scout programs and activities.

Home Show Features Stratus Faction

One of Canada's fastest-rising entertainment troupes will be featured at the Edmonton Home Show, March 29 to April 2, at the Kinsmen Field House.

The Stratus Faction, a dynamic and versatile group of 25 Alberta young people, will present a lively revue of songs, dances and instrumentals each day during the show.

The group has been attracting rave reviews since its formation last year, and it is currently auditioning for the 1972 Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto.

Nucleus of the organization is the Stratus Singers—Murray Cameron, Brock Smith and Merry Jo Hahn, who have been together for five and a half years. While the trio is the backbone of the show, everyone in the group is versatile enough to step into the spotlight and practically everyone does before the revue is over.

The Faction includes three dancers, a vocal chorus (with soloists like Joanne McNeil, Gary Kines and George Schram) and a band under the direction of Klaas Craals.

Aiming at an audience "between seven and 70," the Stratus Faction will deliver a well-blended variety of songs, such as Jealousy; Sunday Morning; Excerpts from Jesus Christ Superstar; Echo Park; Going Out of My Head; Gypsies; Aquarius.

Another reviewer commented: "Make no mistake—this is a professional group. They are slick, smooth, versatile and they know the meaning of the words dynamics and pacing."

The Stratus Faction will be one of four family-styled entertainment features at this year's Home Show.

The show will be open to the public from 6 to 11 p.m. on the first two days; from 1 to 11 p.m. on Good Friday and Saturday, and from 1 to 6 p.m. on the final day.

Exciting young group Home Show feature

A field gas price increase of one cent per thousand cubic feet would cost Albertans $2,500,000 per year on their gas utility bills, but would produce dividends by bringing into the province almost $4,000,000 per year from other provinces and the United States, the Alberta Energy Resources Conservation Board was told recently.

New hope for children with learning problems

It is estimated that there are between 1,000 and 1,500 children with learning disabilities in the Sturgeon-St. Albert area. If you would like to learn more about learning disabilities or have a child who is having difficulties in school you may be interested in attending the next regular monthly meeting of the Sturgeon-St. Albert Association for Children with Learning Disabilities. It will be held at St. George Simpson Jr. High School on Monday, March 27 at 8 p.m. A film will be shown and T. D. Baker, former Deputy Supt. of the Edmonton Public School Board, will be the key speaker.

Every school has its quota of "lazy, immature, uncooperative, troublemaking students who refuse to learn. Many of them are of average or above intelligence, but for some inexplicable reason they seem to display a willful resistance to efforts to teach them. It appears they simply don't want to learn. Yet for most this is not the case - they want desperately to learn, but they can't. Through no fault of their own, they have never been able to learn to read. These bright children are suffering from a neurological disability known to medical science as Specific Dyslexia - which makes it impossible for them to perceive and/or record accurately the symbols of the printed page. With proper help they can overcome their disability and learn to lead normal, productive lives.

Consider the child. During his early years, he is an average, healthy, happy human being. He has seemingly developed normally, and often displays above average intelligence. Then he enters school. Suddenly he is faced with an environment in which learning to perceive written symbols has become his most important task. It rapidly becomes clear to him that success, both now and in the future, is dependent upon this one complicated - and for him, impossible - skill. The circuits in his personal computer, for some reason, don't receive and process the symbolic data channelled to them from his eyes and ears with the accuracy and consistency of his fellows. He is lost. To him "b" becomes "d", "p" becomes "q", say may be written as "was", "on" as "no", and numbers may be similarly reversed with "42" substituted for "24."

Mr. Baker's talk on the subject, and the film, will be of considerable interest to parents with children facing such problems, teachers and the general public. Associations such as the St. Albert one have been successful in focusing interest on learning disabilities, and good progress is being made by educators in attacking the problems and getting the help needed by these youngsters.

Music from Handel's Messiah will be presented Sunday by accomplished musicians

When the St. Albert Singers present Part III of Handel's Messiah at the Newman Theological College this Sunday evening at 8:30 p.m., the solo will be sung by four of the Singers' own ranks, Diane and Ronald Nelson, soprano and bass, have studied and performed extensively in Toronto and Edmonton. Nancy Bellis, contralto, began singing in her native Wales where she became an experienced chorister, while tenor Richard Leggett has sung in Edmonton with the University Singers, the da Camera Singers and the Edmonton Opera Chorus, and in St. Albert with the United Church Choir. The St. Albert Singers are indeed fortunate in numbering among their members singers of this calibre, who contribute not only as soloists, but as valued chorus members.

Accompaniment for Sunday's program will be provided by organist Carol Otto, music director of St. James United Church, and a resident of St. Albert for the last two and one-half years. Carol holds a master's degree in music education from Michigan and is currently doing advanced organ study with Hugh Bancroft at All Saint's Cathedral. She was the winner of the Open Pipe Organ class at last year's Kiwanis Music Festival. Providing trumpet obbligati will be Daniel Otteson, a trumpet major in the Department of Music, University of Alberta.

Assisting the St. Albert Singers in Sunday's presentation will be the choir of St. Albert United Church, which, along with the St. Albert Singers, is under the direction of Lillian Upright. They will sing a group of four litanies by da Vittoria, Bach, Friedell, and Praetorius.

Guest performers, appearing under the sponsorship of local 390 AF of M, will be the Edmonton Wind Walter Miller, National Vice-President, will occupy the "hot seat" and will answer questions from a panel of representatives of a number of organizations.

Invitations have been extended to Uniform, Federated Co-operatives Ltd., Canadian Chamber of Commerce, UFA Co-op Farm Supplies, Canadian League of Rights, Alberta Wheat Pool, United Grain Growers, Canadian Cattlemen Assoc. and Western Stock Growers. Western Native Games To Start On April 7

Plans are being made by INSPOLO (Indian Sports Olympics) to conduct the first Native Winter Games.

The Blood Indian Reserve in southern Alberta was selected as the site for the first Western Canada Native Winter Games set for April 7, 8 and 9, 1972. The three day affair will bring together the top Indian athletes in western Canada numbering close to 500. The participants will be coming from British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and the Yukon.

The three major sports that the winter games will have on their program are hockey, boxing and basketball. All the boxing will be held at the Senator Gladstone Hall which can seat over 800 people. The basketball games, both men's and women's, will be held at St. Mary's Residential School. The Kainai Sports Centre with a seating capacity of 800 will be the scene of the hockey games; some of the elimination games will be held at either Cardston or Fort Macleod, depending on the availability of ice. The St. Paul's and St. Mary's residential schools on the Blood Reserve will be accommodating the majority of the athletes, and accommodations will be arranged also in Cardston and Fort Macleod.

Student Jobs In Europe End March 31

Time is running short for post-secondary students who wish to submit job applications under the International Student Summer Employment Exchange Program. Employers in most of the 11 European countries in the program have specified that applications must be received before the end of March.

The program was announced by the department of manpower and immigration on January 13 and there are job openings still to be filled in Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, The Netherlands, Norway and Switzerland.

Jobs in a variety of occupations range in duration from six weeks to three months, commencing about mid-May or early June.

Salaries vary depending on the job and country, however, wages are considered sufficient to cover the cost of living in the country concerned. In many service and trade jobs free room and board is provided.

Detailed information about the program and jobs in the various countries, as well as how to make application is available at Canada Manpower Centres and placement centres at universities and colleges.

Students must be prepared to finance their own transportation, however, the department will reimburse return travel costs within Canada for students who fulfill their work commitment in Europe.

Many facets of education depicted at Vanier High

On Tuesday evening, March 7th the students and staff of Georges P. Vanier school held their annual Education Week program. The "Open House" began at 7 p.m. and finished at 9:30, although some of the classrooms stayed open until 10 p.m.

In the auditorium the junior cheerleaders led by captain Janielle Gibeau, showed the audience some of the various and difficult school cheers that they have mastered since the beginning of the school year. Following this presentation, the grade 3 girls health class gave a very interesting demonstration of yoga. The class displayed many different and difficult yoga poses that required concentration to execute.

Following the yoga presentation, Mr. F. Hemingway, our guest speaker gave us a very interesting and informative talk on "Financial Assistance available for Post Secondary Education." His presentation illustrated the fact that finance is not a barrier to the post secondary education plans of senior students.

During the evening, the classrooms were open for visitors. In Mr. G. Houle's room a scientific football game was in progress involving grade seven students. In this game, the "Bears" beat the "Lions" 27 - 26.

In the social science room the Social 30 class were showing slides and a film on the topic of prejudice. Another look at "Prejudices" was given by the grade nine students who have made a tape recording depicting examples of different types of prejudice. The prejudice theme was further illustrated by a variety of posters done by grade eight classes.

In the grade eight classroom there was a varied and colorful arrangement of art work done by the grade seven students.

The year book committee also got involved by organizing a picture and year book display. In addition, the year book committee members explained the techniques involved in putting a year book together. In the music room the music eight students demonstrated their ability on the recorder by playing several selections to the interested parents who gathered in the room.

The "Merchandising 20" class conducted a practical program by organizing the "one night" cafeteria. From reports received, it appears that the class really learned a merchandising lesson -- losing money.

Many thanks are extended to the teachers and students who made this evening possible for all.

Board hears report on Rec. Workshop

By Florence McInnis

The regular meeting of the Morinville Recreation Board was held on Wednesday, March 15 with seven of the eight members attending.

Reports were heard on the Provincial Workshop held in Banff, noting that a very full program was carried out. The four topics discussed by the more than 200 delegates were: philosophy of recreation, financial, regionalization, and problems of resort areas. The Morinville members attending were able to bring back a good deal of information and advice obtained from other rec. boards as to organizing and operating programs as well as how best to meet the full needs of the community. In the reports it was stressed that understanding and co-operation are the basis of a balanced program.

Harvey Atkinson reported from the committee to investigate regionalization and it was noted that this committee will be attending the MD Rec Board meeting on April 3.

The secretary reported that the Getsther has been cleaned and repaired and is now located in the board room, asking that any clubs or groups wishing to use the machine please make arrangements through Jo Anderson at 256-3280.

Discussions were held regarding a St. John's Ambulance course and the setting up of a domestic arts program. Both will be discussed further and definite plans made in the early fall.

The Keep Fit classes began with registration night March 13 and 40 ladies have taken advantage of this course so far. If there is anyone who is still interested in joining please be in attendance on Monday night at 7:30. There is a $1 registration fee and you are required to wear running shoes in the gym. Remember it is Monday nights in the gym at G. P. Vanier High School (south entrance) at 7:30 p.m. sharp. Miss Karen Weston, the instructor has an excellent program set out, including basic physical fitness, some Yoga, badminton and volleyball. Mrs. Trish Seymour and Mrs. Denise Houle are assisting.

The recreation board wishes to announce that the Dept. of Culture, Youth and Recreation is again offering a Provincial Recreation Leadership School. This year it will be held in Drumheller from July 2 to July 29. Candidates will take courses in principles and philosophy of recreation, fitness, minor games, first aid, square and round dancing, community singing, plus crafts, swimming, drama and/or gymnastics. Successful candidates are expected to return to their home area and use their leadership training to advantage by assisting with the recreation program. Further information may be obtained from the Sports Association, Recreation Board and at G. P. Vanier school.

A local swimming program is under investigation, as is a summer program, to see if there is any possibility of setting up something for this year. Your suggestions and ideas are again solicited. Phone a recreation board member today and let them know you are interested in the town!

The next meeting of the board will be held April 20 at 8 p.m. Our local recreation board is doing its best to understand and co-operate. ARE YOU DOING YOUR PART?

AROUND STURGEON

Hog farmers in the district were not too happy with the market situation Monday, when the market dropped, and they are placing the blame squarely on the fact that pigs trucked in from Saskatchewan flooded the market. "This kind of situation should be stopped," said one producer in the Qui Barre area, "and we are not very happy with the provincial Hog Marketing Board."

attend the upcoming meeting in Edmonton to protest the discontinuation of passenger train service by the CNR between Edmonton and Grand Centre.

Court of Revision for the Village will be held Wednesday, March 22.

There was a discussion on what and how many services should be provided in the new subdivisions to the north and south. Most council members felt that all services should be completed by the developer and no cost of any of these services should be the responsibility of the residents of the present area.

Calahoo Sports

By Liz McLeod

Well done Calahoo Scorpions, even if you lost out to Namao in the fifth game of the semi-finals. Better luck next year.

The Junior Scorpions are playing quite well and due to the warm weather Surge Grioux took his charges to the rink in Morinville to play Riviere Qui Barre's team who won this game. The ice had close to an inch of water on it so the players had to shed some mighty wet uniforms after the game.

A provincial final game was in progress between Gibbons and Morinville so our boys had an opportunity to see finalists in action. Myles and Daphne Kerr accompanied Gordon and Emelia Schmermund taking Barry and Michael to the game.

The Mighty Mites got a to attend the Seed Growers convention in Manitoba. Leo is a board member of the Alberta Seed Growers and whilst speaking with him at Myles Kerr's one day he was very busy with so many cows calving and was pleased to have a set of twins born.

Your friends at Calahoo are hoping you are well again Elsie L'Hirondelle, after being in hospital. Do hope Colleen is better also.

pretty good start this year with Clifford Fowler in charge. Goalies were Donnie Fowler and Travis Patrick, other players are Shane Quintal, Lorne Labonte, Shawn Moellman, Norman Majeau, Sidney Karakonti, Bronco Letendre, Lyle Quintal, Grant Berube, Mark Berube, Francis Sibulski, Henry and Dale Bodez and Tim Witten. Good luck next year.

Nature's Way??

By Liz McLeod

It is believed that only in Texas things are supposed to be bigger and better, but here is an oddity for the books.

Louis and Natalie Dhoedt and son Farrell live on their farm in the Calahoo district.

While attending the row one evening he was pleased to see a nice litter of 12 healthy piglets nursing and left her to care for her own.

In the morning he saw that she had laid on one but she was uneasy and for a good reason, she gave birth to another litter of 10 healthy little ones.

The market would soon be flooded this way.

Many topics covered at WI conference

By Liz McLeod

The District 11 WI Conference at the Corona Hotel March 7 and 8 was a success with 142 members registered.

Mrs. K. Dalheim, Mrs. V. Albrecht and Mrs. P. McLeod attended from Calahoo WI.

Mrs. Vera Holt who is district director was in the chair flanked by provincial president Mrs. Marion Alexander and secretary Mrs. P. McLeod. Mrs. L. Kulak, pianist and soloist Mrs. Esther Johnson, were from Winterburn WI.

Mrs. Jean Balfour from the Commune (halfway between Calahoo and Onoway) sang "Prairie Rose" beautifully and also told us of life for her at the Commune Jean is a new member for Onoway WI and a very enthusiastic one.

It's always a thrill to hear John Patrick Gilse speak as he is supervisor of Creative Writing for Alberta and his Irish humor was very amusing.

The conveners were put to a test of knowledge by fellow member Mrs. Esther Brown of Vimy. One convenor wasn't going to be denied the privilege of getting to the conference. She came from hospital in a wheelchair.

Something new is being tried. Each member put her name in a box pulled out a name she didn't know and will now correspond with

Sturgeon MD Gets Green Light On Land Fill Plot

At last Thursday's general meeting of the Municipal District of Sturgeon, council made a motion to approve an extension of two months by lease agreement, for a five-acre refuse area at Cardiff.

The MD was assured of a continuance on this land as a result of permission previously granted by the Hon. Neil Crawford, minister of health and social development.

The question of the Cardiff site used for a nuisance grounds came up recently when the lease agreement with Mr. and Mrs. P. Cote expired. At this time, an area of about 400 acres in the Cardiff area was being considered for joint use by both the MD of Sturgeon and the Town of St. Albert.

A meeting had been previously arranged with the minister by St. Albert MLA Ernie Jamison. Attending at the meeting were representatives from the MD of Sturgeon, an observer from the Town of St. Albert, two delegates from the Sturgeon Health Unit, the MLA and Hon. Bill Yurko, minister of the environment. At this meeting the joint application to lease the 400-acre was discussed and the minister of health ruled that the MD's requirement for a five acre site be investigated for ground water level.

It was the Minister of Health's concern that the Cardiff Mine site, used for a nuisance ground could cause water pollution in the area.

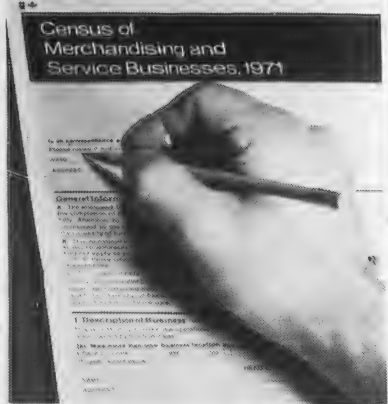

This evolved the discontinuance of application for 400 acres for a joint nuisance ground site and approval of five-acres, for the sole use of the Sturgeon MD while water level tests are being conducted.

Regarding the Hanson Report and its recommendations which gave rise to an annexation plan, advanced by the City of Edmonton, Sturgeon MD Council made a motion, which was approved, to continue co-operating with other affected municipalities and oppose implementation of the Hanson Report, under the direction of one solicitor and freeze zone.

Another topic of discussion regarding the proposed annexation, the MD Council approved a motion whereby a general meeting will be held sometime in April (date to be announced) at which all ratepayers of the MD of Sturgeon will be invited to express their views on the Hanson Report question. The meeting will be held in the Napanee School.

A motion was made and approved whereby, if the Town of St. Albert wishes to continue pursuing an application to acquire lands in the Old Alfalfa Plant area for garbage disposal, that said council should obtain approval from the people of the MD of Sturgeon.

Give us your facts. We'll put you in the picture.

Merchandising and service businesses make a $50-billion contribution to the Canadian economy every year. They employ more people and produce more revenue than any other industry group.

Now, in the final phase of the 1971 Census of Canada, we're measuring the precise share of that activity generated by each business in these categories. The figures relating to your operation are vital to this measuring process.

If you are a wholesaler, retailer, or supplier of services, you will have received a census questionnaire to complete. Please fill it in and mail it back promptly.

When the Census of Merchandising and Service Businesses has been taken, we will be able to produce a clear picture of national trends in these fields, so you can see exactly where you fit in.

Whatever your sales volume may be, the 1971 census data will show you how your performance compares with others of similar size, nationally, provincially, or in your own county or census district. Sales, payrolls and number of employees are among the variables you can measure.

Your individual information will continue to be held in strictest confidence, as required by law. We won't publish figures in cases where there are fewer than three firms in a given category, so no one will be able to identify your specific results.

The Merchandising and Service Division of Statistics Canada is taking this census to produce accurate, up-to-date information to help in your business planning. To do this, it needs your up-to-date results. The breadth and thoroughness of the census is what makes it so important to so many people in business and government alike.

Keep Alberta Green

ARTICLE THREE

Picking up from the last article, two slash-removal methods which thus far have been used in Alberta forest operations, and their effect on the forest environment are described this week.

The first method consisted of bringing in bulldozers to pile up the slash in huge windrows for burning. This was a very effective slash removal method but unfortunately, it virtually destroyed the possibility of successful reforestation. Not only was the slash bulldozed together, but in the process around and often the topsoil was stripped from the area. After the windrows had dried for several years they were set on fire, and the remains and ashes were re-distributed over the area.

During the century that it may take for a forest to grow and mature, up to 90 per cent of the plant nourishment originally in the soil is absorbed and stored in the trees. When the trees are harvested most of this percentage becomes lost, and the burning process destroys the balance of this percentage of this natural fertilizer matter contained in the slash, rootwork and other vegetation and thus adds insult to injury. When the remaining ashes are scattered over the bare land, very little is left from the former forest to help future growth. The freshly spread ashes and the remaining topsoil, which is no longer reinforced with a network of roots and vegetation, is easily washed down-hill during major rainfalls. This has resulted in wash-outs, erosion and siltation of nearby watersheds.

Fortunately this method is not used often any more, and may even have been completely abandoned. A newer method called 'scarification' is extensively used at present.

Scarification tries to overcome some of the problems caused by the just described method.

Bulldozers are equipped with heavy triangular steel wedges, three per machine. Each wedge measures about 2' - 6" at all its triangular sides. The wedges are pushed into the slash in an effort to break up the slash and bury it at the same time. Dragged behind the machines is a heavy chain harrow about 15' x 15' in size. The harrow consists of a net of arm-thick chain links equipped with arm thick steel spikes each about a foot in length. The harrow is followed by a heavy 4" square steel drag-bar about 15' in width.

The equipment is partially successful, burying about 50 per cent of the slash. Thus the fertilizer matter in the slash no longer gets lost by burning.

However this method also completes the destruction of what initially was an ecologically balanced and intricate forest system. Not only does the equipment bury or tear from the ground every last bit of grass, bush, moss and mushroom and leaves the area looking like a desert. It also loosens the topsoil and tears out the reinforcing rootwork. The bald earth is unable to stop rain water from gushing over the surface and causing washouts, erosion and the siltation of watersheds. The method is particularly dangerous for use on terrain with more than eight per cent slope, where erosion of topsoil becomes a much greater problem. This leads to the damages of downstream flooding in watersheds. In hot weather the soil in scarified, clear-cut areas becomes parched with arid dryness soon after the rains. The forest environment is being destroyed to an extent that it becomes difficult to re-grow new trees by reforestation.

Reforestation standards set up by the former Social Credit Government call for establishment of 400 trees per acre. This works out to about one tree for one hundred square feet, and would therefore require trees at about 10' x 10' spacings. In other words, trees should be about 10 feet apart. The trees are required to have grown for three years in the area, where they are checked for complying with the density standards. This occurs seven years after the initial harvesting operation. The pulp companies are supposed to do their own policing for complying with the standards. In addition up to 1/3 of their policed areas are double checked by government inspectors.

While a spacing of trees at 10' on centre would be a good spacing, if all trees were to grow to an age of 30 years, it should not be assumed, that all three year old trees found in the area after planting will necessarily survive to become 30 years old. (To be continued in next issue describing 'Reforestation Problems' - and possible solutions.)

Alberta farmers have worked almost 50 years to build their grain-handling co-operative into the success it is today. The pioneers of 1923 would be proud!

New City Game Unveiled at Home Show

The "City Game," an exciting new concept in a participatory display, will be unveiled at the Edmonton Home Show by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation.

Every person attending the show will have an opportunity to play the game.

A third of the CMHC's display will feature a large screen presentation of a new movie, "Family House." The other two-thirds will be divided into 12 kiosks, each featuring a question with a possible three answers. The questions will relate to city problems, the film and CMHC's participation in Edmonton during the past 25 years. Each participant will do two things as he passes through the exhibit. He will push the answer button on the kiosk and if he gets the right answer, the kiosk will light up and sound a buzzer. At the same time he will mark a special card, confirming his response.

At an additional kiosk a CMHC female staffer will do a quick check of each reply card and award a "City Expert" ribbon to everyone who answers all questions (right or wrong).

Neil M. Oakley, regional information officer for CMHC, said the questions will be humorous and geared to a broad age bracket, so all can play.

The home show, at the Kinsmen Field House, runs from March 29 through April 2.

Diseases a hazard for pea growers

Dr. F. R. Harper, plant pathologist at the Canada Department of Agriculture Research Station, Lethbridge, says that peas are grown for seed and for processing on 15 to 20 thousand acres in Alberta. The crop is mainly confined to irrigated farms in the south. The growing of peas is not without its hazards for peas are susceptible to a variety of diseases.

Root rot is the most serious disease of peas in this area and many other pea-growing areas. In fields frequently cropped to peas the soil-borne fungi that cause the disease build up rapidly to the level where pea growing must be abandoned. Land that is heavily infested with these organisms may require 10 years or more for the population to decrease to a level where peas can again be profitably grown. All of the common effective fungicides will protect the seedlings from attack and delay the onset of the disease. A crop sequence where peas are grown once in four or five years will prevent the build-up of large populations of these root-rotting fungi.

Powdery mildew, the disease that produces a white, powdery covering on the leaves, stems, and pods of peas, is frequently severe on late-maturing varieties in the field and in home gardens. Dusting the plants with sulfur as soon as the symptoms appear is effective in controlling this disease. Two newly developed systemic fungicides have been highly effective in controlling the disease in experimental plots but at present they are not registered for use on food crops. Bacterial blight, a seed-borne disease that causes spots on the leaves and pods, seldom causes significant damage to peas under the dry conditions of southern Alberta. Its main significance is that seed from a crop where bacterial blight has been found cannot be shipped to the United Kingdom, one of Canada's best customers for pea seed. Bacterial blight can be avoided by sowing disease-free seed in land not cropped to peas the previous growing season. The Mycosphaerella and Ascochyta diseases, which are often troublesome in moist pea-growing areas, rarely occur in Alberta. These diseases cause spots on the leaves, stems, and pods. One of them also causes rot at the base of the stem. The fungi causing these diseases survive from year to year in infested seed and in undecayed plant debris. Their infrequent occurrence in Alberta is an important reason why this province is a major producer of pea seed in Canada.

Incentive program for forage

The federal government continues to offer a $10-an-acre payment to producers who switch production from grains, oilseeds, and other crops to forage. Producers holding a Canadian Wheat Board permit book are eligible to receive this payment offered by the Canada Department of Agriculture through the Prairie Farm Assistance Administration.

To qualify for the payment, land diverted from grain production must be seeded to a true perennial grass, legume crop or a mixture of the two. This does not include sweet clover or other annual or biennial grasses and legumes. There must be a net reduction in crop and summer-fallow acreage and a net increase in tame grass acreage to receive the payment.

Forage program applications are completed following seeding and once checked by the PFRA, farmers receive a payment of $5-an-acre. A further payment of $5-an-acre is received after inspectors verify that the land is still in grass on July 15th of the following year.

Application forms for the 1971-72 crop year and program details will soon be available from elevator managers and district agriculturists.

Treat now for warble

Jack Kerns, in charge of the Alberta department of agriculture's warble control program, urges dairymen to treat their milking cows for warbles now. He also urges beef producers who did not treat their cattle last fall to do so now and to check those that were treated.

Because milking cows can only be treated with a contact backwash, treatment can only be done at this time of year when the warbles are in the backs of the cattle. For best results, Rotenone, the only contact backwash available, should be applied twice, with a three to four week interval between treatments. It can be applied with a high pressure spray or it can be scrubbed into the animal's coat with a brush.

Mr. Kerns says that non-milking beef cattle not treated last fall and those that still have the odd warble can be treated with a systemic after March 1st in southern Alberta and after March 15 in northern Alberta. Beef producers who do not want to use a systemic can treat with a backwash.

Mr. Kerns wants beef cattlemen to inspect all their animals in the spring, even if they were treated last fall, because treatment is not always 100 per cent effective. The few warbles that might have survived the fall treatment could re-infest the whole herd by the end of the summer.

Horsebeans could have future in Alberta

Horsebeans could have a future as a high protein supplement for livestock feed.

Although this crop has not yet been tested in Alberta for its suitability to climatic and soil conditions, the head of the provincial field crops branch, Dave Jantzie, feels that it could have a good potential here, particularly in the irrigation areas.

To date most of the research in Western Canada has been done at the Universities of Manitoba and Hog producers must have their requests in before March 31 if they have lost their grading certificates and want the Alberta Hog Producers Marketing Board to supply them with the necessary information to enable them to qualify for the hog deficiency payment.

Some producers have not kept their 1971 Canada Department of Agriculture hog carcass grading certificates, and some have lost all their records. Others did not get grading certificates last year because they sold their hogs on a live weight basis for export.

In an effort to resolve these problems the AHPMB contacted the agricultural stabilization board in Ottawa and obtained the following guidelines.

Producers who have their official CDA hog carcass grading certificates and submit them with their claims will be paid immediately.

A producer who does not have his official hog carcass grading certificates can submit other records, such as the AHPMB statement of settlement. His payment will be delayed because the board will have to check to see that the records have not been submitted twice.

A producer who has lost his grading certificates and his hog marketing board statement of settlement can request the hog board to send him a summary statement. The stabilization board will accept this summary statement, but, again, payment will be delayed until the records have been checked.

A producer who did not ship 200 hogs with an index of 100 or higher in 1971 can make up the difference with hogs shipped on alive weight basis for export. The AHMB is mailing a summary statement of live hog shipments to all producers who sold hogs on this basis. This summary statement will be accepted by the stabilization board. Since only a certain percentage (not yet decided) of hogs sold on a live weight basis will be accepted for deficiency payment, a producer who did not ship 200 eligible graded hogs should attach a record of all his live weight shipments to his claim. It should be noted, however, that anyone who shipped 200 eligible hogs in 1971 has reached the maximum number on which he is entitled to a deficiency payment. In this case the summary statement of live hog shipments with his claim, he will only delay his payment.

In summary, the agricultural stabilization board's hog deficiency payment of $5 per hog applies to all market hogs with an index of 100 or higher, up to a maximum of 200. No payment will be made on cull sows or boars.

New Appointment Set

The Hon. Hugh Horner, Alberta's minister of agriculture, has announced the appointment of Harry Hargrave to the position of chief marketing commissioner for the province.

In the past as marketing commissioner, Mr. Hargrave was mainly concerned with export markets for Alberta products, However, in his new position he will be responsible for both domestic and international trade.

Born at Medicine Hat, Mr. Hargrave was raised on the family cattle ranch at Walsh, After taking public and high schooling at Medicine Hat, he graduated with a degree in agriculture from the University of Alberta in 1932. In 1933-34, he managed the CY Ranch at Fort Macleod.

Since 1934, Mr. Hargrave has spent 36 years in federal service, 25 years with Experimental Farms at Manyberries, Swift Current and Lethbridge, followed by 11 years with PFRA at Regina.

On June 30, 1970, he retired as Deputy Director of PFRA and commenced work with the Province of Alberta on July 1, 1970, as Alberta Marketing Commissioner, with responsibility to promote the sale of Alberta products on the international markets of the world.

Since assuming his present duties, Mr. Hargrave has spent considerable time in Japan and Korea in discussions with trading companies and other trade promoting agencies.

In 1971, he visited nine Western European countries meeting with officials of the EEC, trading companies and governments.

At the present time more research is being done into their nutritional quality.

Since production of this crop in Western Canada is still in the experimental stage, no commercial seed will be available until at least 1973.

Corrections are in order on the two following reports: The report published two weeks ago that the Morinville Fire Brigade had been called to the Larry Pelletier farm where a Volkswagen car had burned, was wrong information. The fact is that the Morinville Fire Brigade was called to the Sidney Piffo residence, when their 1970 Ford model car was discovered ablaze at 5 a.m., parked on #2 old highway in front of the former Zel McDonald property and was completely destroyed.

The second wrong report was the fact that Roger Blackburn was reported elected vice chairman of the Double "C" Investment Club when Matt Tellier is the new 1972 vice president.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roger Tourangeau who welcomed their first baby, Tammy Lynn on Thursday, March 16, seven lbs. eight ozs.

Morinville is happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Louis Houle, formerly of St. Albert who are making their home in the former Victor Perras residence.

The first flight of the 1972 Men's Open Borspeli began last weekend with 16 rinks competing to take on the winners of the second flight started this weekend. Good prizes are up for the "winners-take-all" finish. So far those ready to meet the challengers of this week's play are: 1st event winners - John Heuer rink from Edmonton; 2nd event winners, skipped by Sid Piffo of Morinville, and the Georges Morris foursome from Morinville who finished ed first in the third event. Among recently reported in hospital are Mrs. Florence Vranas and Henry Theberge.

Last week two former long time residents of Morinville were main street visitors, Raymond Robert and Joe Lalour, both now of Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Kremer accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rouault of St. Albert, Mrs. Florence McGlinis and Miss Karen Weston, returned last week, after attending a seminar and workshop session at Banff on recreation, representing the recreation board.

Among those who also took part in the recent fly-in to Racine Wisconsin for the Case Implement Co., were Andrew Lutz, Archi Cameron, Dave Theriault, Allen McDonald, Pat Sheehan, Roger Henry, Gordon Walters and Alfred Herminot, all of the district.

This week two members of the Meunier Farm Equipment Ltd., of Morinville, Guy Meunier and Jim Kennedy, will attend a seminar in Calgary for Massey Ferguson mechanics. Mr. Gastave Meunier, manager of the firm will accompany them.

Marcel Labonte has announced that the present premises will be enlarged and that a new grocery section will be added to the Labonte's Meat Market with construction of the addition slated to begin in April.

Gabrielle Morie has been promoted to full time clerk at the Morinville Credit Union. Irma Welsgerber is part time clerk, Maurice Perras is the manager and Miss Doreen Calder, senior clerk.

Next Sunday, March 26, is family dinner out Sunday in Morinville. The annual parish supper will be served in the Morinville Recreation Centre from 5 - 7 p.m., followed by a $500 bingo and raffle.

The Riviere Qui Barre Community Society will hold their annual cash and ham bingo also Sunday evening in the RQB Camilla School building, beginning at 8 p.m.

An old landmark south of main street the former Stefes lumber shed, in recent years, used as a storage shed by Kremer and Kremer, has been moved west on the IH machinery display lot. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brennes have purchased the large lot and plan to build a new residence on the property.

Mrs. Gabrielle Ricard is recovering from a fractured arm, suffered when she fell, while doing volunteer work, on a recent community project.

Early Saturday morning, a spectacular but not fatal accident happened to Gerard Rivet, 19, reported sole occupant of his convertible car, when the vehicle jumped the guard rail on the Morinville Highway overpass, tumbled down the east bank, crossed the Riviere Q. Barre road, and rolled south some way on the south exit approach to Morinville. The young man is reported bruised and suffered a sore shoulder, but walked away from the accident, and the crushed vehicle.

The annual meeting of the town of Morinville ratepayers was held on March 16 with 35 residents reported present, including the mayor and council members. Romeo Boissonault was elected chairman of the meeting, and Paul Emile Brochu, town secretary, treasurer, was secretary. The routine reports were given. The one highlight of the evening, was the full discussion of the financial report by several residents.
